

Roberto and his family have lived in Waynesboro for the past 18 years.

He helps manage a distribution center in Albemarle County and is fluent in both English and Spanish.

He's passionate about doing his part to help the local community get access to food.

If he's not working or volunteering, you can find him running on the Greenway, hiking with his family and their dog Chula, or playing disc golf.